PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hi everyone! We had an eventful April. We had a wonderful presentation on Miniature Quilts and Workshop on making a miniature Sudoku Quilt. Then there was the Easter Season that was shared with friends and family. And then the all so dreaded Tax Day. I am hoping for nice weather this month and of course, Memorial Day, the unofficial start of Summer. We have a great lineup of speakers and workshops coming your way which I know you will enjoy. So, until we meet again, wishing you all the best.

A message from our Nominating Committee

It is that time of the year where the Nominating Committee is looking for members to serve on our Board as officers. It doesn't matter if you are a new member or a member that has helped in the past, we need you. Your ideas and experience is needed. It is a wonderful way to get to know more about the Guild and its' members. If you are interested in helping our Guild move forward, please contact one of us.

Thank you,

QUILTERS GUILD OF EAST TEXAS

The Quilters Guild of East Texas met at First Christian Church on Thursday, April 14, 2022. Sherry Gary, President, called the meeting to order at 10:03 a.m. Sherry welcomed all members, new members and guests. Jackie Ruffing will be the Chairman of the Nominating Committee for 2022-2023. Please let Jackie know if you would like to serve. The Shreveport Guild will be here on May the 12 to show their raffle quilt and sell tickets. We will have a new approach to the Hive by having a buddy system for new members. Corey Starkey will be in charge of this new venture. We need a 2023 Quilt Show Chairman and a 2024 Raffle Quilt.

President – Sherry Gary - The March General Meeting minutes were approved as distributed in the newsletter.

Treasurer – Cecilia Brannon - The Financial report was posted in the lobby. Any questions should be addressed to Cecilia.

1st Vice President – Corey Starkey - Corey has put together a committee to help friend the newcomers. The Child Advocacy Center sent a thank you card for the pillowcases that were donated. Corey will be teaching scrappy strip pieced 6-pointed star tomorrow.

2nd Vice President – Cathy Woodson – Nancy Gibson presented her program called Secrets to Successful Miniatures. She will conduct a workshop right after Guild meeting. Our May program and workshop will be led by the Bee Creative small group. Their program is called You Don't Have to Be an Artist to Make an Art Quilt. Their workshop on Friday will show us many ways to enhance our quilts through coloring, inking and embellishments. Susie Bruise will show how to make clay buttons. In June we will have another zoom presentation. Jody Parron will inform us of Barn Quilts Trails. Two of these trails are found in Texas. One is around Lufkin and the other near Bonham. The workshop in June will be Rhonda Chapman showing us how to paint a barn quilt. Her husband is preparing the boards for this class which will cost $10.00 plus the $20.00 for the workshop. July is the Cuddle Quilt Challenge along with invited charity organizations telling the membership about their organization. The workshop will be presented by Lisa Martin on how to work with wool. Kit fee is $12 and the workshop is $20.

Quilt Show 2022 – Susan Merrill – Reported $15,000 profit. Door prizes given by our vendors were distributed to those that were at the preview party. Susan thanked all the members that helped make the show a success. Susan Kellam has the ribbons for the quilt challenge. Next month will be the drawing for the blocks.

Membership – Lisa Martin – There are 66 members here today. We have 19 new members from the quilt show which makes a total of 172 Guild members.

Social Media – Jackie Ruffing – There is a new Facebook page as the old page has been retired. Quilters Guild of East Texas is the name and Lisa Martin is in charge of the public page.

Newsletter – Lucinda Cox – If you are not getting the newsletter, please contact Lucinda.

Bee Keeper – Karen Walters – Wooley Ewes is looking for new members.

Event Coordinator – Pat Graham – Houston bus trip is a go for Thursday, November 3rd! The cost for members will be $75, this includes your ticket to get in the show. We need 40 members signed up and paid. Non-members will be $80 when the waiting list is open to them. Our Christmas luncheon theme will be the Season of Service. There will be a photo op, games and a pot luck luncheon. We are asking the members to step up to the challenge and donate homemade items to the Children's Advocacy Center. There are four different projects: a) stuffed animals, b) lap quilts for a boy or a girl, c) huggable pillows with encouraging saying and, d) pillow case bags with strings like Corey has had us make for the children. We will have a game that is not Fat Quarter Bingo. Also, you may want to participate in an ornament exchange, handmade or purchased ornament for exchange.

Shadows – Rose Wilson in for Sheryl Moore - Sherry Gary lost her mother March 27th. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family, Sherry.

Sunshine – Marylou Douglas has been cancer free for 5 years!!

Deal or Dud – Pill boxes are great for transporting bobbins.

Cuddle quilts – Maresa Campbell - Took in 4 completed quilts today and four tops. Maresa reminded everyone of the panel Cuddle Quilt Challenge for July. You may use your own panel and fabric, but you need to register with Maresa if you plan to enter the contest. The Cuddle Quilt Bee is open and meets the 3rd Tuesday of the month at First Baptist Church from 10 until 3 April 19th is the next meeting. There will be speakers, those organizations who are recipients of the cuddle quilts, at the July meeting.

Reception – Becky Chambers – Door prizes were distributed from Crafts and Quilting, A Joyful Thread, Options in Jacksonville and anonymous members. Thank you to the anonymous members who donated door prizes and our wonderful supporting quilt shops!

Show and Tell - members

Business meeting adjourned at 11:05 a.m.

Program today was Nancy Gibson and Miniatures.

Meeting adjourned at 12:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Susan Branscum, Secretary

Programs & Workshops

May- Bee Creative group

You Don't have to be an Artist to make an Art Quilt

What is an art quilt? How is it different from a modern quilt? This program will show those of us who are not art quilters how to step out of our traditional zone and see quilts from a different angle. We will also be having a demonstration of various techniques used in art quilting. Sounds very interesting!

Workshop- Step outside the box, embellish your quilts! In this fun workshop you have 3 different flower choices. We will learn about using inks to color fabric, embellishment stitches, fabric beads and even making clay buttons! Cost is $20. See complete supply list at QGETX.org.

June- Suzi Parron

Barn Quilts & Barn Trails

You may have seen wonderful, large quilt blocks painted on signs and hung on barns and other buildings in the past. Suzi Parron has researched and written books about the Quilt Trail Movement which began in 2001 by visiting 29 states. We have 2 Barn Quilt Trails in our area. One around Lufkin and one in the Bonham area. I'm sure you will find this to be a fascinating topic with great pictures and background information. The presentation will be via Zoom.

Workshop- Rhonda Chapman will teach us how to make a barn (or anywhere else) quilt sign on June 10th. The cost of the workshop is $20 and the kit fee for the "prepared" board is $10. You will need to supply paint in your desired colors. See complete supply list at QGETX.org.

July- Cuddle Quilt Challenge & Charities

We will all be showing the Cuddle Quilts we have made and members will vote for their favorite 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place for prizes. We will also have guests from some of our charities to talk about their work in the community and how they use our donations.

Workshop- Working with Wool Lisa Martin has created 2 different cute designs for a mug rug or a pin cushion. She is providing the materials for a $12 kit fee. Class is $20. Supply list at QGETX.org.

Class information-

Classes are normally held on the Friday 9 am to 4 pm, following our Guild meeting on Thursday. You may want to arrive a little early to get your work area set up.

Cathy Woodson, 2nd Vice-President Programs

QGET PROGRAMS AND WORKSHOPS

Programs are offered the second Thursday of each month following the QGET business meeting at First Christian Church, Tyler. There is no charge to attend a program. The business meeting begins at 10am and the Program generally starts around 11. Programs last 1-1.5 hours.

Workshops vary in length from 1/2 day to a full day. They are held on the second Friday of the month. Workshops are generally $20 for members who sign up at the meeting the day before the workshop. Cost may vary with the length of the workshop. Workshops begin at 9am. Participants are encouraged to arrive by 8:30 to set up machines and supplies if necessary. Workshops are in the conference room at First Christian Church, Tyler. This room is located in the building behind the main sanctuary building. It is next to the scout room by the doors that lead out into the parking lot between the two buildings. Please note that these doors lock automatically and you may have to go around to the main entrance to this building to get in. When we have full day workshops, you are responsible for your lunch. You may bring a lunch or order from one of the restaurants close by.

Workshop Supply List on Website: www.qgetx.org

Membership News

We had a blockbuster sign up at our recent quilt show, with 19 people joining our guild. Please welcome the following new and returning members:

Jonna Baker	Mary Jean	Cindy Newland
Carol Brown	Anita Kieny	Jo Nortier
Catherine Cureton	Debbie Lovett	Beth Owens
Pat Fontenot	Jerriann Massey	Rhonda Reuter
Penny Hannah	Charlene Mitchell	Letha Sparks
Donna Hudnall	Randall Mitchell	Nancy Still
Gail Hunt

I will be putting bright colored dots on new members nametags now, so if you see someone you don't know at a guild meeting with a dot on their nametag, please make an effort to get to know them. We hope our new members will become active in our guild and join us in the Hive and workshops especially.

CUDDLE QUILT NEWS

Hello Sew Friends,

I hope everyone is sewing! I think I have spring fever because I am doing everything but sewing. But I am determined I will be in my sewing room this afternoon. (Big Smiley Face)

The Cuddle Quilt Bee met on April 19th. We had several in attendance. We worked on making tops, putting labels on quilts and binding. Any guild member is welcome to join us as we are an open Bee. So, pack your lunch and sewing machine to come sew with us. We meet on the Third Tuesday of each month from 10-3 at the First Baptist Church downtown on the 4th floor. The address is 301 W. Ferguson St., Tyler, TX 75702. We make donation quilts to serve our community. If you feel lead and would like to make a quilt using your stash, that would be great too! I have labels at the Cuddle Quilt Table if you would like to pick one up for your quilt.

There is just a couple of months left on the Panel Quilt Challenge. The contest ends in July. I have less than 10 kits left. Wouldn't it be wonderful to have all 40 kits turned in! See me at the Cuddle Quilt Table to check out a panel kit or a regular kit. It's ok too, to use your own panel and make a quilt for the challenge. Just stop by the table so I can issue a number for you so you can be entered into the contest. There is going to be a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prize and you don't want to miss out!!!

If you have any questions regarding Cuddle Quilts, please do not hesitate to contact me. My cell number is 903-245-5164. Call or Text, your choice. I will be glad to answer your questions if I can regarding Cuddle Quilts.

Thanks for all your continuing help and support. I'm thankful for all who are working to make Cuddle Quilts successful!!! Let's keep sewing!!!

Maresa Campbell

Member News!

Congratulations to Becky Prior and Jackie Brown, "Halequinade", won three awards at the Dallas Quilt Show, March 11-13:

1. First place, Master Division, Large Applique Quilt
2. Pride of Dallas Award
3. Viewer's Choice

Did you purchase Cathy Woodson's Bernette 334D sewing machine from her several years ago? Cathy found more feet she would like to give you. Please contact Cathy if you purchased her machine.

Bee News

Our Woolly Ewes Bee are inviting new members to join their Bee. They meet the 1st Thursday of each month at A Nimble Thimble, 1 pm. If you have never worked with wool and would like to try it, just show up during their meeting time and see what the ladies are working on, get some instruction, and give it a try. You will be welcomed. All supplies may be purchased at A Nimble Thimble and Crafts and Quilting also carries some wool packs. Small projects like pin cushions, table toppers, and small wall hangings can be made without buying yardage of wool. It's easy to take on road trips or for stitching while watching television. But if you are wanting to make quilts, there are some wonderful patterns. Wool and flannel pair nicely together.

I hope you enjoy seeing the pieces shown and consider trying something new or bring your wool project and spend time stitching with others and making new friends.

Hive News

Hello quilters! We have formed a Greeting/Welcoming Committee.

Each month, Karen Walters, Sue Olson and Nancy Mc Reynolds will assist me in welcoming our members especially the new ones into our Guild meetings. I encourage each and every one of our members to make our guests and new members feel welcomed, most of the time a hello and a smile are sufficient to break the ice.

The April Hive meeting was so much fun, there were 6 members and 2 guests.

Here are some pictures of the blocks made out of strips that day:

The following members will be doing demonstrations/Techniques at the Hive:

May ----- Thread Painting Beginner Class by Melanie Dossey

Thread Painting Supply List for the demonstration:

- 12" quilt sandwich, light solid color cotton, cotton batting, safety pinned together
- Air erase pen or other marker
- Thread: rayon or poly, choose light to dark values of an analogous colorway, 8-10 spools and black thread
- Sewing machine able to drop the feed dogs, free motion foot
- Optional 6-8 embroidery hoop
- Machine needles, 90/14
- Paper and pencil to take notes

If you just come and check us out, watch, take notes and enjoy the fellowship.

June ----- Hand Applique/Prepared Edge Applique by Lisa Martin

July -----Sue Olson will show us how to make a Steampunk block, AKA a Propeller block. If you are interested, there is a pattern you can purchase, Jen Kingwell is the designer. She will demonstrate how she made the Steampunk/Propeller block.

August----- Rose Wilson will demo Cathedral Windows.

September ----- TBD

I will let you know the material List for each demonstration/technique as they become available to me.

And more games and prizes.

Summing Up the Awards in Our 2022 Quilt Show

The foundation of our 2022 quilt show dates back to 2020, when a worldwide pandemic caused our quilt show to be cancelled. At that time many individuals and sewing groups had generously sponsored ribbons for the show. Those individuals and sewing groups graciously allowed their contributions to be carried over for two years.

During those two years of cancelled shows, much had changed. Our traditional venue was razed and the new one was smaller. We had to be extremely cost-conscious, so the decision was made to omit a quilt show program. Ordinarily the sponsors of ribbons are written up in the quilt show program, but this was no ordinary year. Additionally, the quilt show categories were different in 2022. Please rest assured that whether your category was combined with another, your ribbons were available to be awarded to winners.

To everyone who rallied to sponsor ribbons back in 2020 and who let their contributions carry over for two years—a heartfelt thank you for your understanding, support, and generosity. I invite you to read the explanations of the ribbons and the beautiful dedications that accompanied these sponsorships.

Marilyn Hardy
